THE UCSB MULTICULTURAL CENTER PRESENTS
MCC in SB

(re)membering
my body:

AN EVENING OF SPOKEN WORD WITH JAMAICA HEOLIMELEIKALANI OSORIO

Jamaica Heolimeleikalani Osorio is a Queer Kanaka Maoli wahine poet / activist / scholar born and raised in Palolo Valley (O'ahu). Jamaica is a three-time national poetry champion, poetry mentor and a published author. Her poetry explores culture, dispossession and the disembodiment of Indigenous desires. (Re)membering My Body loves hard and deep, speaks desire back to the bone, and insists on being heard. Co-sponsored by the Resource Center for Sexual & Gender Diversity.

THURS, MAY 17TH, 6 PM
SPOKEN WORD
SBCAST, 513 GARDEN ST.
SANTA BARBARA

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities contact the Multicultural Center at 805-893-6411
FOR THE FULL SPRING 2018 CALENDAR, VISIT MCC.1A.UCSB.EDU