FREE-DEM FOUNDATIONS:
FROM WRONGFUL INCARCERATION TO COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION

JEROME MORGAN
ROBERT JONES
DANIEL RIDEAU

Free Dem Foundations is a men's rights community-based organization that partners with local businesses and individuals to empower New Orleans residents. Co-founded by Jerome Morgan, Robert Jones, and Daniel Rideau, these men were all wrongfully convicted and served a total of more than fifty years in Angola Prison before being proven innocent.

Jerome Morgan was wrongfully convicted and spent a total of twenty years in Angola Prison before being proven innocent with the help of the Invisible Institute. He will speak about his life before incarceration, fighting for freedom, and the Freedom Project and his work with the Center for Black Studies Research. The CCF-141 Foundation is a non-profit community-based organization that partners with local businesses and nonprofit organizations to help formerly incarcerated business owners get involved in the recovery process. Co-sponsored by the UC Consortium on Black Studies Research.
