KCSB-FM news presents

unnatural disasters & environmental racism a panel featuring

CAUSE | MICOP | UCSB students of environmental justice & UCSB environmental studies professors

mon feb 25
5PM

grad student lounge

free
refreshments provided

broadcast live on KCSB-FM 91.9
& kcsb.org

The focus of this panel is the implications of (Un) Natural Disasters on marginalized communities due to noninclusive and outdated policies. This will include discussion of case studies and their impact on communities as well as collaborative efforts in moving forward—envisioning how policy makers and government responses can incorporate marginalized communities.